Differences Between
Project Manager & Scrum Master

Job Description

A Project Manager is in charge of planning, executing, and completing projects within set constraints. They manage resources, monitor progress, engage stakeholders, and ensure project success.

Characteristics

- Leadership
- Organization
- Communication Skills
- Problem Solving ability
- Adaptability

Top 3 Responsibilities

- Planning and defining project scope
- Leading project teams and managing stakeholders
- Monitoring progress, adjusting plans and mitigating risks

Certifications

- Project Management Professional (PMP)
- Certified Associate in PM (CAPM)

Job Description

A Scrum Master is vital in Agile teams, ensuring adherence to Scrum principles. Their main goal is to facilitate the Scrum process and empower the team for efficient delivery of high-quality products.

Characteristics

- Servant Leadership
- Facilitator
- Coach and Mentor
- Problem Solver
- Change Agent

Top 3 Responsibilities

- Facilitating the Scrum process and ceremonies
- Removing impediments and obstacles from the team
- Coaching and mentoring the team on Agile principles and practices

Certifications

- Certified Scrum Master (CSM)
- Professional Scrum Master (PSM 1)
- Certified Scrum Product Owner (CSPO)
- SAFe Agile 6.0 Scrum Master (SSM)

Knack Training